

2023 Maine Land Conservation Conference

March 2023: Virtual workshops and presentations during the month
May 3, 2023: In-person conference at Samoset Resort, Rockport, ME

Maine Coast Heritage Trust's annual Maine Land Conservation Conference brings together land trusts, natural resource professionals, and Maine people to discuss and explore the most pressing issues facing land conservation. Participants share knowledge and best practices, learn from experts and one another, and are energized by inspiring speakers. Each year, Maine's conservation community increases the impact of its work by coming together to learn and grow collaboratively.

2023 Hybrid Conference Model

The new hybrid model offers the ultimate flexibility in programming, convenience, and impact for our attendees. Your sponsorship includes acknowledgement in all promotion, web presence, and at all virtual and in-person sessions.

March Webinars

The month of March will offer a series of 8 live webinars on a variety of topics that are important to the land trust community, including a resource guide for completing land transactions, using video effectively on social media, beaver management, IT security, and so much more.

One low price ($25) provides access to all conference sessions and recordings.

May In-Person Conference

The 39th annual Maine Land Conservation Conference returns for an in-person conference at the Samoset Resort in Rockport to celebrate in-person reconnection with a full day of world-class speakers, small group discussion, plenty of networking time, and a dinner.

As a sponsor, your organization will be acknowledged at the start of every session. You also qualify for a number of free tickets to attend the Conference. Please contact Donna Bissett (dbissett@mcht.org) to obtain the discount code so that you can register at no cost.

Visit our Conference web page for additional information, including our schedule of webinars, workshop descriptions, presenter info, and more.
